Churches To Be Asked To Aid Chest Drive

Religious congregations of all faiths will be called upon by the Inter-Faith committee for the Community Chest to furnish at least ten volunteer workers for service in the fall appeal for 152 Red Feather agencies, this program having been put into effect following the rally of nearly 200 clergy and lay leaders of Protestant, Catholic and Jewish groups last week in the Los Angeles Biltmore Hotel.

Leading the appeal for strong support for the Chest in its campaign in order to raise adequate support for youth organizations, for the sick, for neglected children and for a variety of other vital human wants were Rev. Wendell Miller, of University Methodist church, Rabbi Edgar P. Maggin and Most Rev. Timothy J. Manning.

Only by uniting the forces of religious groups with the Community Chest, Rev. Miller declared, can the greatest number of men, women and children in the metropolitan area be benefited. No congregation alone is able to meet the needs of its own immediate neighborhood, he emphasized.

"Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give." These words of Jesus from Matthew will be the Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Christian Science" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

A Bible citation from The Acts "seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms. . . Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk. And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up; and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength. And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "Is it error which is restoring an essential element of Christianity—namely, apostolic, divine healing? No; it is the Science of Christianity which is restoring it, and is the light shining in darkness, which the darkness comprehends not."
